

LOCAL BREVITIES.

To the wife of E. C. Peters, a daughter.

The Kiloheana Art League is selling tickets to the Ingalls recital.

Onomea's dividend will be reduced this month from 40 cents to 20 cents a share.

Owing to ill health, Mr. L. P. Tenney has resigned his position as plantation guide.

Hawaiian Tribe No. 1, I. O. R. M., will meet in K. of P. Hall at 7:30 this evening.

Dr. Y. E. Colville and wife of Oklahoma City arrived in the bark R. P. Rithet yesterday.

Elder Sheehy of the Reorganized Church of Latter Day Saints will go to Hilo by Friday's boat.

Olive Branch Rebekah Lodge No. 2, I. O. O. F., will meet in Odd Fellows' Hall at 7:30 this evening.

There will be a meeting of the Alewa Heights Improvement Club tonight at half past seven at the Young Hotel.

Manuel Pacheco has gone to Hilo to institute a lodge of Companions of the Forest, the woman's branch of Foresters.

Mrs. Ingalls' concert under the auspices of the Kiloheana Art League will be given at the Alexander Young hotel tonight.

A new Chinese daily paper will be started in Honolulu this month, to be called the Chinese Daily News. It will take the place of the Chronicle.

Barney Joy is back at his old job in the Honolulu Iron Works. He expects to stay there until the baseball season begins next spring in the States when he goes to Boston.

A suggestion has been made that the old market building should be removed to the Sorenson wharf, to serve as a freight shed there and thus save the cost of a new structure.

Miami, a Japanese woman living on Vineyard street, reported to the police yesterday that her room had been entered and $70 stolen. The money was taken out of a sewing machine drawer.

The Architectural Work of Charles William Dickey is a beautifully illustrated book containing some fine pictures of Honolulu homes, exteriors and interiors, as well as half-tones of buildings designed by Mr. Dickey on the Coast.

President Jordan of Stanford University is still awaiting a report from the chemists on the digestive organs of the late Mrs. Jane L. Stanford, sent from Honolulu to San Francisco for scientific examination, before making his final report on the cause of death.

Manager W. G. Walker of Ookala plantation purged himself of contempt of court at Hilo by saying he had not intended contempt of the grand jury when he refused to answer its questions about road work. Judge Parsons accepted the statement and discharged the respondent.

J. P. Cooke, manager of Alexander & Baldwin, is quoted as denying that the general financial stringency was the cause of suspending Haiku plantation's dividend. "The reason lies altogether in the plantation's circumstances, the expenses having been high the past season owing to improvements."

An open circular letter reached an employee of the Gazette Co. the other day, in which was concealed a stamped and addressed letter intended for somebody in Toledo. Evidently the Toledo letter, on being dropped into a mail box, slipped into the circular envelope and made the long journey to Honolulu unobserved.

1908 VIEW CALENDARS.

THE CHRISTMAS STORE

THE GREAT GIFT SEASON

CHRISTMAS 1907

The store fairly smiles in its Christmas attire. Rich Cut Glass, beautiful Silverware, dainty China, artistic Italian Marbles, graceful French Bronzes, Venetian Glassware, Art Potteries, greet your eyes at every turn.

FANCY CHINA

Little needs be said about our assortment of staples. Everyone concedes that we can not be beat in Dinnerware. Special attention has been shown Fancy China this year and we pride ourselves that in this branch, too, we excel. Some of the new creations are: Russian China, Feu de Four, Royal Berlin and Vienna.

LIBBEY CUT GLASS

It has no peer in quality, artistic beauty of design and pattern, or accuracy in execution. The vast category of pieces is inexhaustible and many new ones have been added this year. The catchy Plain Flute design is the foremost of this year's additions. Select early to be on the safe side.

From every available source we have gathered the best to be had in value, beauty of design and attractiveness of pattern. Come now and inspect our vast stock. Everybody can be suited and disappointments unknown.

STERLING SILVER

We have taken a prominent place in the Sterling Silver field, and must maintain our lead. The flat ware consisting of Knives, Forks, and Spoons, in all sizes and styles, is the largest assortment in the city. Silver mounted goods are still the rage and our aggregation on display is simply beautiful.

ADMIRAL MAKES
JACK A PRESENT

A. L. C. Atkinson was the recipient of a suspicious looking mail package yesterday which at first blush might have been anything from an infernal machine to Wells-Fargoed female rock.

After the secure wrapping had been removed the package was found to contain a beautiful silver cigarette case and an explanatory card worded as follows:

"I will be much pleased if you will accept the little present as a remembrance of our pleasant meeting."

Admiral Tanioka

Commanding the Japanese Training Squadron.

Unfortunately Jack doesn't smoke but he has added the trinket to his collection of silverware.

HOLIDAYS NEXT YEAR.

Next year Washington's birthday, Memorial day and the Fourth of July all fall on Saturday, giving the public three "double holidays."

Ordinarily these three do not fall on the same day, but by the intervention of February 29 next year Washington's birthday falls just fourteen weeks earlier than Memorial day, which regularly comes five weeks before the Fourth.

The advantage of having a holiday adjoin a Sunday, for people who desire to seize the opportunity to make trips out of town, is very great.

In creating the last holiday—Labor day—advantage of this principle was taken in the selection of the first Monday instead of a numbered day of the month.

In 1909 Washington's birthday falls on Monday, the 30th of May and the Fourth of July on Sunday, which will mean a Monday observance, so that for two years in succession double holidays are assured.

In the later year Christmas will also fall on Saturday, thereby affording the most complete trial of the "double holiday" possible in our calendar.—Boston Transcript.

Transport Dance
at the Seaside

This evening, in honor of Colonel Walter S. Scott and the officers and ladies of the Fifteenth Infantry, who arrive today on the Sherman. If by any chance the transport should not reach here, the hop will be postponed until tomorrow. An innovation will be sprung on the public, in that several of the very best native dancers will go through the ancient dances of the days of the Kamehamehas. All friends of the army and navy, as well as of the Seaside, and guests of the other hotels, are cordially invited. Tonight will see the record crowd at the Seaside, therefore be sure and make your table reservations in advance.

SAY! STRANGER!

DON'T LISTEN TO KNOCKERS. There are people in Honolulu who, for selfish motives, will try to dissuade you from going to the Volcano.

They will tell you that the trip is a hard one, and fraught with danger.

DON'T YOU BELIEVE IT

KILAUEA VOLCANO

is one of the world's greatest natural attractions, and the surrounding country is a perfect wonderland.

The trip, except in bad weather, is a delightful one; the Hamakua-Hilo coast outcrops in beauty the scenery of the Hudson. The visitor who leaves the Volcano out of his itinerary does not see Hawaii.

Come in and let us tell you about the trip.

When the foreign missionary had concluded his talk, he made the usual appeal for contributions, however small. Coming up to the platform with several others, a small boy mounted to the level of the lecturer and hastening toward him, said: "Please, sir, I was very much interested in your lecture, and—and—" "Go on, my little man," said the missionary encouragingly.

"You want to help in the good work?" "Not exactly, sir," said the boy. "What I want to know is, have you any for-stamps you don't want?"
